OBASI N'DALA

Variant Human, Wizard (Order of Scribes) 5th, Chaotic Good

Armor Class 16 (Mage Armor + Cloak of Protection)

Hit Points 30 (8 + 4d6 + 4d6)

Speed 9 m (30 ft)

STR	DEX	CON	INT	WIS	CHA
11 (+0)	14 (+2)	14 (+2)	20 (+5)	12 (+1)	12 (+1)

Saving Throws Int +9, Wis +5, Dex +3, Con +3, Cha +2, Str +1 (incl. +1 Cloak)

Skills Arcana +8, History +8, Investigation +8, Religion +8, Nature +5

Senses Passive Perception 11

Languages Common + one extra language

Challenge 5 (1,800 XP) Proficiency Bonus +3

TRAITS

Variant Human (race). Ability Score Increase. Two different ability scores of your choice gain +1. Skills. Proficiency in one skill of your choice. Feat. One feat of your choice (Resilient CON). Size. Medium; speed 9 m. Languages. Common and one extra language of your choice.

Resilient (CON). +1 Con; proficiency in Constitution saving throws.

Arcane Recovery. Once per day, when you finish a short rest, you regain expended spell slots totaling no more than half your wizard level (rounded up), and none of the slots can be 6th level or higher.

Ritual Casting. You can cast a wizard spell with the ritual tag as a ritual if the spell is in your spellbook, without having it prepared.

Awakened Spellbook. You use the book as a spellcasting focus; you can change the damage type of a spell to one from another spell of the same level in the book; casting a ritual uses the normal casting time instead of adding 10 minutes (once per day).

Magical Quill. As a bonus action, you create a pen that needs no ink; copying a spell takes 2 minutes per level; you erase what you wrote by waving the feather (within 1.5 m).

Spellbook. Copying a spell into the book costs 2 hours and 50 gp per level; copying from a scroll requires an Intelligence (Arcana) check with a DC of 10 + the spell's level (the scroll is destroyed either way). Preparing the day's spells takes at least 1 minute per level and is completed after a long rest; you can prepare a number of spells equal to your Intelligence modifier + your wizard level (5 + 5 = 10).

Researcher (Acolyte). When you attempt to learn or recall a piece of lore, if you do not know it, you often know where and from whom to obtain it: a library, a scriptorium, a university, a sage, or another learned person. With the Dungeon Master's permission, you can know details about the religions, ceremonies, and deities you come into contact with.

ACTIONS

Dagger +1 (Mithril). Melee. +6 to hit, reach 1.5 m, one target. Hit: 4 (1d4+3) piercing damage.

Fire Bolt (cantrip). Ranged spell attack. +8 to hit, range 36 m, one target. Hit: 2d10 fire damage.

Shocking Grasp (cantrip). Melee spell attack. +8 to hit; advantage against targets wearing metal armor. Hit: 2d8 lightning damage and the target can't take reactions until the start of your next turn.

Chill Touch (cantrip). Ranged spell attack. +8 to hit, range 36 m, one target. Hit: 1d8 necrotic damage and, until the end of the target's next turn, the first attack roll it makes that deals damage has disadvantage.

Magic Missile (1st-level, 3). Spell. You create three darts (one more for each slot level above 1st), each dealing 1d4+1 force damage.

Chromatic Orb (1st-level). Ranged spell attack. +8 to hit, range 27 m. Hit: 3d8 (acid, cold, lightning, fire, thunder, or poison), +1d8 for each slot level above 1st.

SPELLS (DC 16, ATTACK BONUS +8)

Spell Preparation. You can prepare 10 spells at the end of a long rest (level 5 + Intelligence modifier +5). Prepared spells are marked with an asterisk (*) in the book.

Cantrips (4). Light, Shocking Grasp, Fire Bolt, Chill Touch.

1st Level (4 slots). Chromatic Orb, Mage Armor, Magic Missile, Shield.

Rituals in the book (not prepared): Alarm, Identify, Detect Magic, Find Familiar.

2nd Level (3 slots). Phantasmal Force, Invisibility, Dragon's Breath, Tasha's Mind Whip.

3rd Level (2 slots). Haste, Fireball (8d6, DEX save DC 16, 6 m sphere).

Carrying capacity: 82.5 kg. Coins: 708 gp.

MAGIC ITEMS

MAGIC INVENTORY

Ring of Spell Storing	Rare
Pearl of Power	Uncommon
Cloak of Protection	Uncommon
Portable Hole	Rare

RING OF SPELL STORING

(Rare, attunement) This ring stores spells cast into it, holding them until the attuned wearer uses them. The ring can store up to 5 levels worth of spells at a time. When found, it contains 1d6–1 levels of stored spells chosen by the DM. Any creature can cast a spell of 1st–5th level into the ring by touching the ring as the spell is cast. The spell has no effect, other than to be stored in the ring. If the ring can't hold the spell, the spell is expended without effect. The level of the slot used to cast the spell determines how much space it uses. While wearing this ring, you can cast any spell stored in it. The spell uses the slot level, spell save DC, spell attack bonus, and spellcasting ability of the original caster, but is otherwise treated as if you cast the spell. The spell cast from the ring is no longer stored in it, freeing up space.

PEARL OF POWER

(Uncommon, attunement) While this pearl is on your person, you can use an action to speak its command word and regain one expended spell slot. If the expended slot is of 4th level or higher, the new slot is 3rd level. Once you have used the pearl, it can't be used again until the next dawn.

CLOAK OF PROTECTION

(Uncommon, attunement) You gain a +1 bonus to AC and to saving throws while you wear this cloak.

PORTABLE HOLE

(Rare) This fine black cloth, soft as silk, is folded up to the dimensions of a handkerchief. It unfolds into a circular sheet 1.8 meters in diameter. You can use an action to unfold it and place it over or against a solid surface, whereupon the portable hole creates an extradimensional hole 3 meters deep. The cylindrical space within the hole exists on a different plane, so it has no effect on the space it's in and can't open passages. Any creature or object within its reach can fit inside. As long as the hole remains open, you can use it as a hideout. You can use an action to close it by folding the cloth closed, and any creatures or objects within remain inside. If closed with a creature inside, it can use an action to make a Strength check DC 10 to force its way out and emerge within 1.5 meters of the cloth or its carrier. A breathing creature inside a closed portable hole can survive up to 10 minutes, then begins to suffocate. Placing the portable hole inside an extradimensional space (such as that of a bag of holding) instantly destroys both items and opens a gate to the Astral Plane.

SPELLS

Prepared spells are marked with an asterisk (*) after the name. Spells in the book that are not prepared are collected under Rituals in the book.

CANTRIPS (4)

LIGHT

Evocation cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, M (a firefly or phosphorescent moss)

Duration: 1 hour

You touch one object that is no larger than 10 feet in any dimension. Until the spell ends, the object sheds bright light in a 20-foot radius and dim light for an additional 20 feet. The light can be colored as you like. Completely covering the object with something opaque blocks the light. The spell ends if you cast it again or dismiss it as an action.

If you target an object held or worn by a hostile creature, that creature must succeed on a Dexterity saving throw to avoid the spell.

SHOCKING GRASP

Evocation cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

Lightning springs from your hand to deliver a shock to a creature you try to touch. Make a melee spell attack against the target. You have advantage on the attack roll if the target is wearing armor made of metal. On a hit, the target takes 1d8 lightning damage, and it can't take reactions until the start of its next turn.

The spell's damage increases by 1d8 when you reach 5th level (2d8), 11th level (3d8), and 17th level (4d8).

FIRE BOLT

Evocation cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 120 feet

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

You hurl a mote of fire at a creature or object within range. Make a ranged spell attack against the target. On a hit, the target takes 1d10 fire damage. A flammable object hit by this spell ignites if it isn't being worn or carried.

This spell's damage increases by 1d10 when you reach 5th level (2d10), 11th level (3d10), and 17th level (4d10).

CHILL TOUCH

Necromancy cantrip

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 120 feet

Components: V, S

Duration: 1 round

You create a ghostly, skeletal hand in the space of a creature within range. Make a ranged spell attack against the creature to assail it with the chill of the grave. On a hit, the target takes 1d8 necrotic damage, and it can't regain hit points until the start of your next turn. Until then, the hand clings to the target.

If you hit an undead target, it also has disadvantage on attack rolls against you until the end of your next turn.

This spell's damage increases by 1d8 when you reach 5th level (2d8), 11th level (3d8), and 17th level (4d8).

1ST LEVEL (SLOTS: 4)

CHROMATIC ORB*

1st-level evocation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 90 feet

Components: V, S, M (a diamond worth at least 50 gp)

Duration: Instantaneous

You hurl a 4-inch-diameter sphere of energy at a creature that you can see within range. You choose acid, cold, fire, lightning, poison, or thunder for the type of orb you create, and then make a ranged spell attack against the target. If the attack hits, the creature takes 3d8 damage of the type you chose.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 2nd level or higher, the damage increases by 1d8 for each slot level above 1st.

MAGE ARMOR*

1st-level abjuration

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (a piece of cured leather)

Duration: 8 hours

You touch a willing creature who isn't wearing armor, and a protective magical force surrounds it until the spell ends. The target's base AC becomes 13 + its Dexterity modifier. The spell ends if the target dons armor or if you dismiss the spell as an action.

MAGIC MISSILE*

1st-level evocation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 120 feet

Components: V, S

Duration: Instantaneous

You create three glowing darts of magical force. Each dart hits a creature of your choice that you can see within range. A dart deals 1d4 + 1 force damage to its target. The darts all strike simultaneously, and you can direct them to hit one creature or several.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 2nd level or higher, the spell creates one more dart for each slot level above 1st.

SHIELD*

1st-level abjuration

Casting Time: 1 reaction, which you take when you are hit by an attack or targeted by the magic missile spell

Range: Self

Components: V, S

Duration: 1 round

An invisible barrier of magical force appears and protects you. Until the start of your next turn, you have a +5 bonus to AC, including against the triggering attack, and you take no damage from magic missile.

RITUALS IN THE BOOK (NOT PREPARED)

ALARM

1st-level abjuration (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 30 feet

Components: V, S, M (a tiny bell and a piece of fine silver wire)

Duration: 8 hours

You set an alarm against unwanted intrusion. Choose a door, a window, or an area within range that is no larger than a 20-foot cube. Until the spell ends, an alarm alerts you whenever a Tiny or larger creature touches or enters the warded area. When you cast the spell, you can designate creatures that won't set off the alarm. You also choose whether the alarm is mental or audible.

A mental alarm alerts you with a ping in your mind if you are within 1 mile of the warded area. This ping awakens you if you are sleeping.

An audible alarm produces the sound of a hand bell for 10 seconds within 60 feet.

IDENTIFY

1st-level divination (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (a pearl worth at least 100 gp and an owl feather)

Duration: Instantaneous

You choose one object that you must touch throughout the casting of the spell. If it is a magic item or some other magic-imbued object, you learn its properties and how to use them, whether it requires attunement to use, and how many charges it has, if any. You learn whether any spells are affecting the item and what they are. If the item was created by a spell, you learn which spell created it.

If you instead touch a creature throughout the casting, you learn what spells, if any, are currently affecting it.

DETECT MAGIC

1st-level divination (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Self

Components: V, S

Duration: 10 minutes (concentration)

For the duration, you sense the presence of magic within 30 feet of you. If you sense magic in this way, you can use your action to see a faint aura around any visible creature or object in the area that bears magic, and you learn its school of magic, if any.

The spell can penetrate most barriers, but it is blocked by 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood or dirt.

FIND FAMILIAR

1st-level conjuration (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: 10 feet

Components: V, S, M (10 gp worth of charcoal, incense, and herbs that must be consumed by fire in a brass brazier)

Duration: Instantaneous

You gain the service of a familiar, a spirit that takes an animal form you choose: bat, cat, crab, frog (toad), hawk, lizard, octopus, owl, poisonous snake, fish (quipper), rat, raven, sea horse, spider, or weasel. Appearing in an unoccupied space within range, the familiar has the statistics of the chosen form, though it is a celestial, fey, or fiend (your choice) instead of a beast.

Your familiar acts independently of you, but it always obeys your commands. In combat, it rolls its own initiative and acts on its own turn. A familiar can't attack, but it can take other actions as normal.

When the familiar drops to 0 hit points, it disappears, leaving behind no physical form. It reappears after you cast this spell again. As an action, you can temporarily dismiss the familiar to a pocket dimension. Alternatively, you can dismiss it forever. As an action while it is temporarily dismissed, you can cause it to reappear in any unoccupied space within 30 feet of you. Whenever the familiar drops to 0 hit points or disappears into the pocket dimension, it leaves behind in its space anything it was wearing or carrying.

While your familiar is within 100 feet of you, you can communicate with it telepathically. Additionally, as an action, you can see through your familiar's eyes and hear what it hears until the start of your next turn, gaining the benefits of any special senses that the familiar has. During this time, you are deafened and blinded with regard to your own senses.

You can't have more than one familiar at a time. If you cast this spell while you already have a familiar, you instead cause it to adopt a new form. Choose one of the forms from the above list. Your familiar transforms into the chosen creature.

Finally, when you cast a spell with a range of touch, your familiar can deliver the spell as if it had cast the spell. Your familiar must be within 100 feet of you, and it must use its reaction to deliver the spell when you cast it. If the spell requires an attack roll, you use your attack modifier for the roll.

2ND LEVEL (SLOTS: 3)

PHANTASMAL FORCE*

2nd-level illusion

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 60 feet

Components: V, S, M (a bit of fleece)

Duration: 1 minute (concentration)

You craft an illusion that takes root in the mind of a creature that you can see within range. The target must make an Intelligence saving throw. On a failed save, you create a phantasmal object, creature, or other visible phenomenon of your choice that is no larger than a 10-foot cube and that is perceivable only to the target for the duration. This spell has no effect on undead or constructs.

The phantasm includes sound, temperature, and other stimuli, also evident only to the creature.

The target can use its action to examine the phantasm with an Intelligence (Investigation) check against your spell save DC. If the check succeeds, the target realizes that the phantasm is an illusion, and the spell ends.

While a target is affected by the spell, the target treats the phantasm as if it were real. The target rationalizes any illogical outcomes from interacting with the phantasm. For example, a target attempting to walk across a phantasmal bridge that spans a chasm falls once it steps onto the bridge. If the target survives the fall, it still believes that the bridge exists and comes up with some other explanation for its fall—it was pushed, it slipped, or a strong wind might have knocked it off.

An affected target is so convinced of the phantasm's reality that it can even take damage from the illusion. A phantasm created to appear as a creature can attack the target. Similarly, a phantasm created to appear as fire, a pool of acid, or lava can burn the target. Each round on your turn, the phantasm can deal 1d6 psychic damage to the target if it is in the phantasm's area or within 5 feet of the phantasm, provided that the illusion is of a creature or hazard that could logically deal damage, such as by attacking. The target perceives the damage as a type appropriate to the illusion.

INVISIBILITY*

2nd-level illusion

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (an eyelash encased in gum arabic)

Duration: 1 hour (concentration)

A creature you touch becomes invisible until the spell ends. Anything the target is wearing or carrying is invisible as long as it is on the target's person. The spell ends for a target that attacks or casts a spell.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, you can target one additional creature for each slot level above 2nd.

DRAGON'S BREATH*

2nd-level transmutation

Casting Time: 1 bonus action

Range: Touch

Components: V, S, M (a hot pepper)

Duration: 1 minute (concentration)

You touch one willing creature and imbue it with the power to spew magical energy from its mouth, provided it has one. Choose acid, cold, fire, lightning, or poison. Until the spell ends, the creature can use an action to exhale energy of the chosen type in a 15-foot cone. Each creature in that area must make a Dexterity saving throw, taking 3d6 damage of the chosen type on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, the damage increases by 1d6 for each slot level above 2nd.

TASHA'S MIND WHIP*

2nd-level enchantment

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 90 feet

Components: V

Duration: 1 round

You psychically lash out at one creature you can see within range. The target must make an Intelligence saving throw. On a failed save, the target takes 3d6 psychic damage, and it can't take a reaction until the end of its next turn. Moreover, on its next turn, it must choose whether it gets a move, an action, or a bonus action; it gets only one of the three. On a successful save, the target takes half as much damage and suffers none of the spell's other effects.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 3rd level or higher, you can target one additional creature for each slot level above 2nd. The creatures must be within 30 feet of each other when you target them.

3RD LEVEL (SLOTS: 2)

HASTE*

3rd-level transmutation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 30 feet

Components: V, S, M (a shaving of licorice root)

Duration: 1 minute (concentration)

Choose a willing creature that you can see within range. Until the spell ends, the target's speed is doubled, it gains a +2 bonus to AC, it has advantage on Dexterity saving throws, and it gains an additional action on each of its turns. That action can be used only to take the Attack (one weapon attack only), Dash, Disengage, Hide, or Use an Object action.

When the spell ends, the target can't move or take actions until after its next turn, as a wave of lethargy sweeps over it.

FIREBALL*

3rd-level evocation

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 150 feet

Components: V, S, M (a tiny ball of bat guano and sulfur)

Duration: Instantaneous

A bright streak flashes from your pointing finger to a point you choose within range and then blossoms with a low roar into an explosion of flame. Each creature in a 20-foot-radius sphere centered on that point must make a Dexterity saving throw. A target takes 8d6 fire damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one.

The fire spreads around corners. It ignites flammable objects in the area that aren't being worn or carried.

At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 4th level or higher, the damage increases by 1d6 for each slot level above 3rd.

THE CHARACTER

BASI N'DALA is a wizard of the Order of Scribes, originally raised as an Acolyte; his mind is a blade as sharp as his pen.

BIOGRAPHY

Born in the slums, Obasi always knew that magic is not a mystical gift but an exact science, a weapon that demands discipline and ruthlessness. In secret he is a master of the cult of Mystra, the Mother of All Magic: for him the Weave is not merely a tool but the sacred fabric of the universe. His path began when he crossed the trail of the Master Scribe, an old and cynical mage who worked in the shadows, secretly affiliated with the Black Network (Zhentarim). It was he who taught Obasi that the Weave is a perfect tapestry, and that anyone who reaches into it without study — like those abominations, the sorcerers, who vomit magic by pure genetic chance — is a dangerous anomaly to be studied, caged, and neutralized. Only wizards deserve power.

Under the Master's guidance, Obasi became a member of the Order of Scribes and learned to channel his magical essence into a seemingly harmless object. With his relaxed demeanor, long gray-streaked dreadlocks, and always low, calm voice, Obasi chose a simple bone hairpin that kept his locks gathered. One fluid gesture of his hand slides the ornament from his hair and, blazing with a spectral energy, turns it into his Wizard's Pen — an instrument of creation and of death.

His composure and ruthlessness drew the attention of the Black Network's leadership, who infiltrated him among the ranks of Waterdeep's magical mercenaries. Obasi played his part flawlessly: a taciturn mage, useful but seemingly bereft of political ambition. A profile so perfect that it caught the eye of Vajra Safahr, the current Blackstaff.

Vajra, however, is no fool. She saw in Obasi an all-too-capable and potentially dangerous individual, the classic "undesirable subject". Not suspecting his Zhentarim affiliation in the slightest, she decided to use him as cannon fodder: she summoned him in secret and gave him a suicide mission — infiltrate Xanathar's lair and wipe out the beholder that controlled Waterdeep's back alleys. Obasi accepted with a nod, not to obey the Blackstaff but because he knew that among the beholder's trophies lay the phylactery of a lich, hidden in a ring owned by Xanathar, which the Black Network and his masters in the cult of Mystra wanted recovered at any cost.

Against all the Blackstaff's expectations, Obasi succeeded: the guild was shattered and the phy-lactory returned to the right hands. It was spring of 1492 DR, shortly after the Dragon Heist, and the streets of Waterdeep already trembled with the war between Xanathar's guild and the Black Network. When Obasi returned, with his usual composure and an unfaltering voice, Vajra realized she had an even bigger problem on her hands. With a feigned smile of satisfaction, the Blackstaff offered him a "promotion": the definitive mission for a hero — descend into Undermountain, find the mad Halaster Blackcloak, and free Waterdeep from his threat forever.

For this task Obasi gathered a party: Yelena, a rogue who casually blends daggers and spells — he saw her work magic and was fascinated, and a good rapport has grown between them; she is also training him in the use of the blade; Varis, an exceptional archer who has saved his life more than once and enjoys his full trust; Opa, a dwarven life cleric who is teaching him the ways of the shield; and Theren, a human about whom he knows little and, by instinct, does not fully trust.

Yet Obasi does not truly consider himself part of that group. He put it together only as a cover: to the others he is the silent wizard who travels with the party, a discreet and loyal cog. In truth he always stays one step apart, at the edge of the fire, listening and taking notes without ever becoming attached. His real allegiances are not at the camp: they are the contacts of the cult of Mystra and the Zhentarim, who feed him information, and his book, where he guards the notes of his personal quests. When the company sleeps or indulges in the fireside talk, Obasi slips away and, quietly, carries on his own plan: gathering the shards of the phylactery, tracking the guardians of the Weave, studying the faults in the magical node of Undermountain. To him every companion is a temporary tool, useful as long as it serves the mission — never someone to confide the true purpose of his journey to.

Vajra is convinced she has sent him to die in the greatest meat-grinder of Faerûn. She does not know that Obasi smiled at the offer. The mission fits perfectly with his plan and the interests of the Black Network: he will descend into Undermountain, yes. He will kill Halaster, certainly. But not to free Waterdeep. Because Undermountain, soaked with magic to its very marrow, is draining the Weave across this whole part of Faerûn — and if the draining continues, the Weave itself will tear and Mystra will die. Obasi will descend to kill the Mad Mage and restore the fabric of the Weave, then claim Undermountain for himself, seizing the vast magical knot hidden within, before rising to the surface, crushing the Blackstaff, toppling the institutions that restrain wizards, and founding a new order where magic is controlled only by those with the right to do so.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

I always speak in a low, calm, and relaxed tone of voice, even while unleashing lethal magic. My peaceful demeanor and unkempt appearance hide a calculating and ruthless mind.

I stay apart by nature: in the party and in the world I am the shadow that listens rather than the voice that speaks. I never volunteer my thoughts, and when my companions open up around the campfire, I listen, nod, and reveal nothing of my own. Every gesture toward others is measured and aimed at an end only I know.

I sleep with the hairpin that is my Wizard's Quill always within reach, and every night I write in the book, in a hand no one would read twice, what I have learned: names, places, faults in the fabric of the Weave. There is no rest for me, only calculations awaiting execution.

My contempt for sorcerers and innate spellcasters, who treat magic as a bestial instinct, is not a whim: it is faith. The Weave is an exact tapestry, and only those who study it have the right to touch it.

IDEALS

Magic is the supreme force of the universe and must be mastered only by those with the discipline to study it. Those born with innate powers are an anomaly of nature and must be caged or eliminated.

The Weave is the sacred fabric of the universe: whoever drains it, tears it, or corrupts it — like the mad Halaster — is the supreme enemy, and I am its judge. My mission is greater than any bond: to restore the Weave's design, whatever the price.

The shadow is more useful than the blade. There is no need to show oneself or to be loved: the plan must proceed, the enemy must not see the blow coming, and no one must know what I truly did, or why.

BONDS

My true family is the cult of Mystra and the Black Network: they are the ones I answer to, not the party. The companions who travel with me are cover tools — I respect them for what they are worth, but my heart is not at their camp; it lies in the secret notes of my book.

My quill-hairpin is my most trusted companion, the extension of my mind. The lich's phylactery, the magical node of Undermountain, and the life of Mystra herself are what I swore to: as long as even one of these remains unfinished, I cannot stop, and I will never betray those who placed them in my hands.

FLAWS

My intellectual pride is immense: I systematically underestimate sorcerers and innate spellcasters, and this may cost me my life against a foe I did not foresee.

Staying apart makes me distant and unreliable in the eyes of others: for all my skill, no one truly trusts me, and should I ever need them, I might find myself alone.

My secret is my chain. I can never explain my real reasons or ask for help, and my ambition to rule Undermountain blinds me to the true, unfathomable madness of that place.
